

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Horace Scott is at the Grand.

A party from Danville, people doing the city, are at the Sherman.

The Hon. Flavius B. Pidgeon, of Vincennes, called at the state offices yesterday.

D. B. Cooper, Esq., deputy treasurer of Hancock county, was in the city last evening.

Judge Worden, Ft. Wayne, and George Sanford, Crown Point, are at the Bates house.

Colonel C. C. Matson and the Hon. Willis G. Neff, of Greencastle, were in the city last evening.

Jasper Clary, the well known merchant policeman, will leave at noon to-day for a trip to Niagara Falls.

W. G. Neff and C. C. Matson, Greencastle; W. McLaughlin, Covington, and J. O'Brien, Plainfield, are at the Grand.

Judge N. F. Malott, Vincennes, is at the Bates house. He will preside on the trial of Jay Voss in the criminal court.

Miss Alice Hopkins returned home last evening from a three weeks' visit to friends in Louisville and Jeffersonville.

R. F. Simpson, W. Van Velsor and H. Jennings, advance agents for Barnum's great show are at the Occidental.

B. T. Smith, Louisville; G. E. Sanders, St. Louis; J. H. Shult, Cincinnati, and A. M. Reid, Steubenville, O., are at the Sherman.

B. F. Spencer, Versailles; W. J. McCullough, Columbus; D. B. Cooper, Greencastle and H. W. Law and M. C. Ramsey, Cincinnati, are at the Spencer.

John C. Walker and Lottie Faucett, Samuel C. Tritipo and Mattie Beverlin, Richard J. London and Josephine Poe, John Lyon and Ida Crail, were yesterday licensed to marry.

A. G. Smith, Esq., a member of the democratic state central committee, in company with Henry Wrope of Jennings county stone quarries, was in the city yesterday and paid the Sentinel a short visit.

Powell Howland, an old and well known citizen, is lying dangerously ill at his residence in the northern portion of the city. He has reached a ripe old age, and him and his friends are anxious regarding his recovery.